LITIGATION RISKS FOR BUSINESS

NOVEMBER 2019

Every business faces the risk of a dispute at some stage.

Come along to learn about the common areas of commercial disputes and how to avoid and manage disputes both inside and outside of your business.

The seminars will be hosted by Baines Wilson Litigation experts, Elizabeth Black and Imogen Duck, Corporate specialist, Jennifer Bell and Intellectual Property specialist, Adam Turley.

You will also have the opportunity to ask any questions during the course of the seminar and to network with other professionals and business owners.

The seminar will cover the following areas:

- Common areas of dispute between companies
  - How these disputes could be avoided and what to do when they occur
  - Contractual documentation
  - Properly drawn up terms
- Disputes within a company
  - Examples from recent high profile cases
  - How to avoid shareholder/director disputes and what to do when they occur
  - The importance of Shareholders Agreements and the protections they provide
- Intellectual Property Disputes
  - What is an intellectual property dispute
  - How to avoid IP disputes and deal with them when they do occur

What people say about our seminars .....
